Contents

Issue 290 March 2016

COVER IMAGE BY RICHARD FINDLEY
See page 27 to find out how to achieve a perfectly sanded surface

Projects

15 Easter Bunny
Stuart King gets ready for Easter with this lovely toy

21 Turning burr oak: a memorial bowl
Andy Coates makes a bowl for an absent friend

33 Candlestick with copper candle cup
Colwin Way makes a charming oak candlestick

69 Kitless Ebonite rollerball
In this issue, Walter Hall makes a kitless Ebonite rollerball pen

83 Horse chestnut bowl
Bob Chapman explains how he turned a decorative bowl from a tricky piece of horse chestnut

Technical

27 How to achieve a perfectly sanded surface
Richard Findley shows you how to reach sanding perfection on your turning projects

44 How to find the centre of timber
In the first of his new series of articles, Philip Greenwood looks at finding the centre of timber

61 Handled bowls
In an abridged extract from All New Turning Projects, Richard Raffan makes these simple handled bowls

75 Working with shell
Kurt Hertzog looks at using various types of shell in his turned work

61

Community

3 Leader
Mark Baker introduces you to this month's issue and ….

6 Community news
We bring you the latest news from the world of woodturning and important dates for your diary

8 Community letters
Discover letters from the woodturning community, including posts from the Woodworkers Institute forum

12 Giveaway
To celebrate 25 years of Woodturning magazine, a string of the industry's top names are giving away items from their product ranges. This month, we have 20 ToolPost smocks to give away

57 Next issue
Find out what's in store for next month

Kit & Tools

95 Kit & tools
A mixture of press releases showing the latest tools and products on the market

Features

51 Max Brosi in profile
We meet Irish woodturner Max Brosi, who creates unusual sculptural woodturnings

39 Looking back on 50 years of turning
Ray Key observes changes in the world of turning since 1965

89 In the workshop with… Juergen Heid
We go into the workshop with German woodturner Juergen Heid

104 Featured Artist
Stephen Hatcher shares one of his 'half-moon' forms with us, which fuses bigleaf maple and paua shell

NEWS, LATEST PRODUCTS, MAGAZINE UPLOADS & EVENTS
can all be found on www.woodworkersinstitute.com. These all appear on the magazine homepage and you can see a bigger selection by scrolling down the page and clicking on the individual stories. We also have an extensive online archive for you to browse

Subscribers!
Turn to page 92 for subscription special offers and you could save 30%!

WT_290_4_5_CONTENTS_bdVS.indd 4 03/02/2016 14:53