Irish Woodturners' Guild 2016 National Seminar

PHOTOGRAPH COURTESY OF IWG

Glenn Lucas demonstrating in Killarney

The Irish Woodturners' Guild (IWG) have announced details of their 2016 National Seminar that will take place 22–23 October, 2016 at the Glenroyal Hotel and Leisure Club in Maynooth, Co Kildare. This annual event is Ireland's premier showcase of woodturning from around the world. The beautiful and historic university town of Maynooth provides a backdrop to the seminar, situated 30 minutes from the centre of Dublin.

Over the two day event, 40 demonstrations will take place, offering something for woodturners of all skill levels. The line-up includes Jacques Vesery (USA), Glenn Lucas (Ireland), Joss Naigeon (France), Colwin Way (UK), Richard Kennedy (UK) and David O'Neill (Northern Ireland). The seminar competition, open to all delegates, features 10 categories and is the premier showcase of the best of woodturning that Ireland has to offer.

The subject for this year's IWG Chapter Challenge is a chess set. Since its inception eight years ago, this competition has achieved its aims in fostering collaboration and group work between members within IWG chapters. Each year the imagination, creative flair, skill, attention to detail and sheer hard work put into the Chapter Challenge make it the centrepiece of the weekend.

Seminar pricing starts at €125 for two days (excluding accommodation and meals). See the website for more details, full pricing and accommodation offers.

When: 22–23 October, 2016
Where: Glenroyal Hotel and Leisure Club in Maynooth, Co Kildare
Web: www.irishwoodturnersguild.com

PHOTOGRAPH COURTESY OF GMC PUBLICATIONS

Colwin Way showing how to turn a lamp stand

Woodturning New Zealand International Symposium

The new venue for Woodturning New Zealand International Symposium offers exciting new features to add to the past two very successful symposia. The lineup of demonstrators is almost the who's who of world-wide woodturning: John Beaver, Troy Grimwood, Chris Hooton, Steven Kennard, Guilio Marcolongo, Hugh Mill, Chris Pytlik, Liz and Neil Scobie, Brendon Stemp, Curt Theobald, John Van Der Kolk, John Wessels and Andi Wolfe. Each one of these demonstrators will have new information for every level of woodturning – beginner or experienced, there are things to be learned – there will be 70 demonstrations to choose from.

While the demonstrations are surely the prime attraction of any woodturning symposium, the trade hall will be full of tools and accessories as well as a great selection of New Zealand and locally-grown timbers. There will be a 'silent auction' of selected special New Zealand grown woods and also an auction of turned items donated by the demonstrators and others, with proceeds going to St John Youth. There is expected to be a large Instant Gallery as every person is invited to bring three items for display. These will all be photographed and a DVD will be for sale. These items will also be part of a competition to reward the best. The other competition will be 'A Box'.

When: 29 September–2 October, 2016
Where: Kings College, Otahuhu, Auckland
Web: www.sawg.org.nz

PHOTOGRAPH COURTESY OF GUILIO MARCOLONGO

Sculptural piece by Guilio Marcolongo

WT_291_6_8_COMMUNITY_NEWS_BDvsSD.indd 7 24/02/2016 15:49